Report on the Celebration of Constitution Day
Government Sanskrit Mahavidyalaya, Samdong
26.11.24

On 26th November 2024, Government Sanskrit Mahavidyalaya, Samdong celebrated Constitution Day with great enthusiasm and reverence, emphasizing the importance of the Indian Constitution and the values it upholds. This significant day, also known as Samvidhan Diwas, commemorates the adoption of the Constitution of India on November 26, 1949, and is an opportunity to reaffirm our commitment to constitutional ideals.

Program Highlights

1. Preamble Reading Ceremony

The event began with the collective reading of the Preamble to the Constitution. Faculty members, students, and staff participated in this solemn activity, reiterating their allegiance to the principles of justice, liberty, equality, and fraternity.

2. Guest Lecture on Constitutional Values

A lecture was delivered by Shri. Shiva Prasad Pokhrel, Principal of the college, who elaborated on the historical evolution of the Indian Constitution, its relevance in the modern era, and the responsibilities of citizens in upholding constitutional values.

3. Pledge Ceremony

A pledge ceremony was conducted to encourage participants to uphold the Constitution and work towards building a more inclusive and harmonious society.

The event saw enthusiastic participation from students, faculty, and staff. It successfully created awareness about the Constitution's significance and inspired attendees to reflect on their duties as citizens of India. The celebration fostered a sense of unity and commitment towards nation-building, aligning with the institution's mission of holistic education.

Conclusion

The Constitution Day celebration at Government Sanskrit Mahavidyalaya, Samdong, was a resounding success, reflecting the institution's dedication to promoting civic awareness and social responsibility. It was a reminder of the shared values that bind us as a nation and our collective responsibility to preserve the democratic fabric of India.
